Dear Jeanette:

Thank you for your help last week regarding my question about section 5(a) of the Conflict of Interest Code.

It is my understanding, based on our conversation, that should this office adopt the standard code it would not be necessary for all designated employees to file an "initial" statement within 30 days after the effective date of the new code, since this office has been covered by a conflict of interest code for some time and all designated employees have been filing as required under the existing code.

I would appreciate it if you could confirm this at your earliest convenience, by letter.

Thanks again for the help. It was nice talking to you again.

Yours truly,

RODGER E. OVERHOLSER
